THIRD BALLOT.

Mr. Riley, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution which was adopted, providing that in the event of any new State being admitted into the Union, any person appointed by the recognized Democratic organization of such State shall be accepted as a member of the National Committee.

A committee of three was appointed to ascertain if the Indiana delegation was likely to soon be ready to return to the Convention, with a view to taking a recess if said delegation still needs further time.

On suggestion of Mr. Nelson, of Tennessee, Mr. Brown, of that State, was invited to present the memorial of the Democratic State Convention of Tennesse, estting forth the sufferings of her people under Radical rule. Mr. Brown took the stand to state in brief the points of the memorial which the committee had prepared, and which he had been deputed to present.
